10 [20] OMAR JUSTINIANO-PÉREZ,
11

12 Defendant

13 CRIMINAL 05-0228 (JAG)

14 MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
15 RE: RULE 11(c)(1)(B) PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)

16 I. Personal Background

17 On June 30, 2005, Omar Justiniano-Pérez, the defendant herein, was charged 18 in a two count-indictment. The defendant agrees to plea guilty to count one of the 19 indictment.

20 Count one charge the defendant with knowingly, unlawfully and intentionally, 21 combining, conspiring, confederating and agreeing to possess with the intent to 22 distribute more than five kilograms of cocaine, 50 kilograms or more of cocaine base
23 ("crack"), both Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substances, and 1,000
24 kilograms or more of marihuana, a Schedule I Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance, 25 in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846.

26 Defendant filed a motion for change of plea on October 12, 2005.

27 II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

28 Today, while assisted by Rafael Castro-Lang, Esq., the defendant, by consent,
29 appeared before me in order to change his previous not guilty plea to a plea of guilty
30 as to count one of the indictment.

3 In open court the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing
 4 being held. The defendant responded that the purpose of the hearing was to plead
 5 guilty. The defendant was advised of his right to have all proceedings, including the 6 change of plea hearing, before a United States district judge. Defendant was given
 7 notice of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries
 8 were to be conducted under oath and that it was expected that his answers would 9 be truthful (he was also explained that the consequences of lying under oath could 10 lead to a perjury charge); and (c) his right to have the change of plea proceedings 11 presided over by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was 12 also explained the differences between the appointment and functions of the two.
 13 The defendant consent to proceed before this magistrate judge.

14 III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

15 A. Compliance With Requirements Rule 11(c)(1)

16 Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the 17 acceptance of guilty pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to 18 Rule 11, in order for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the 19 defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be knowing and voluntary:
 20 "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty 21 does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and 22 consequences of his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 23 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467
 24 (1969)). [There are three core concerns in these proceedings]: 1)
 25 absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge
 26 of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47
 27 F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st 28 Cir. 1991)).

United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

In response to further questioning, defendant was explained and he understood that if convicted on count one, he was exposed to a term of imprisonment of not less than 10 years and not more than life, a fine of not more than $4,000,000, and a term of supervised release of at least five years. The court

2
3 must impose a mandatory penalty assessment of $100, per offense, to be deposited
4 in the Crime Victim Fund, pursuant 18 U.S.C. 3013(a).

5 Defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the 6 court to decide in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term
7 and fine were to be imposed upon him, he later could not withdraw his guilty plea
8 if he was unhappy with the sentence of the court. The defendant understood this.

9
10 Defendant was explained what the supervised release term means. It was 11 emphasized that cooperation with the United States Probation officer would assist 12 the court in reaching a fair sentence.

13 Emphasis was made on the fact that at this stage, no prediction or promises 14 as to the sentence to be imposed could be made by anyone. Defendant responded to 15 questions in that no promises, threats, inducements or predictions as to what 16 sentence will be imposed have been made to him.

17 B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

18 To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of his rights, defendant
19 was advised of his right:

20 1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the 21 government who has the burden of proving his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

22 2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no comment could be made by 23 the prosecution in relation to his decision not to testify.

24 3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which he would be 25 entitled to see and cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on his 26 behalf, and challenge the government's evidence.

4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which would have to be convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means of competent evidence.

5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses.

Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing his demeanor and his speaking with his attorney, that to the best of counsel's belief defendant had fully understood his rights, it is determined that defendant is aware of his constitutional rights.

C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

Upon advising defendant of his constitutional rights, he was further advised of the consequences of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by pleading guilty and upon having his guilty plea accepted by the court, he will be giving up the above rights and would be convicted solely on his statement that he is guilty.

Furthermore, the defendant was admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty he would not be allowed later on to withdraw his plea because he eventually might disagree with the sentence imposed, and that when he were under supervised release, and upon violating the conditions of such release, that privilege could be revoked and he could be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment. He was also explained that parole has been abolished.

D. Plea Agreement

The parties have entered into a written plea agreement that, upon being signed by the government, defense attorney and defendant, was filed and made part of the record. Defendant was clearly warned and recognized having understood that:

1. The plea agreement is not binding upon the sentencing court.
2. The plea agreement is an “agreement” between the defendant, defense attorney and the attorney for the government which is presented as a recommendation to the court in regards to the applicable sentencing adjustments and guidelines, which are advisory.
3. The agreement provides a sentencing recommendation and/or anticipated sentencing guideline computation, that can be either accepted or rejected by the sentencing court.

4. In spite of the plea agreement and any sentencing recommendation contained therein, the sentencing court retains full discretion to reject such plea agreement and impose any sentence up to the possible maximum penalty prescribed by statute.

1. This plea agreement does not bind any federal immigration official, and defendant’s immigration status in the United States may be detrimentally altered due to his conviction.

Defendant acknowledged having understood this explanation.

E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

The government presented a proffer of its evidence with which the defendant concurred.

Accordingly, it is determined that there is a basis in fact and evidence to establish all elements of the offense charged. Should defendant meet all the requirements of the “safety valve” provisions of U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2, then the defendant would be entitled to a further two level reduction in the base offense level.

F. Voluntariness

The defendant accepted that no leniency had been promised, no threats had been made to induce him to plead guilty and that he did not feel pressured to plead guilty. He came to the hearing for the purpose of pleading guilty and listened attentively as the prosecutor outlined the facts which it would prove if the case had proceeded to trial.

IV. Conclusion

The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty as to count one of the indictment.

After cautioning and examining the defendant under oath and in open court, concerning each of the subject matters mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the preceding sections, I find that the defendant Omar Justiniano-Pérez is competent to enter this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offense charged and the maximum statutory penalties that the same carries, understands that the charge is supported by the government's evidence, has admitted to every element of the offense charged, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with full knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea.

Therefore, I recommend that the court accept the guilty plea of the defendant and that the defendant be adjudged guilty as to count one of the indictment.

This report and recommendation is filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Rule 72(d) of the Local Rules of Court. Any objections to the same must be specific and must be filed with the Clerk of Court within five (5) days of its receipt. Rule 510.1, Local Rules of Court; Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). Failure to timely file specific
